U.S. KFOR Soldiers Reward Kosovo Citizens

Ferizaj/Urosevac, Kosovo – Soldiers of Multi-national Brigade (East) presented two local men with a reward worth $1,000 U.S. for returning a lost U.S. Army 9mm Beretta pistol.

The two men will split the reward for finding and returning the pistol that had been lost during an exercise at a local training site.

One of the gentlemen found the weapon when he stepped on it while returning home from his fields. This is the second time a weapon had been found on his property.

Afterwards he gave the pistol to his brother, who then proceeded to turn it in to the MNB(E) Criminal Investigation.

“When he turned the weapon in he did not know there was a reward being offered for it,” said Special Agent George Rivera, commander of the 515th Military Police Detachment (Criminal Investigative Division).

“We appreciate his honesty and hopefully the money will be put to good use for his family,” said Rivera.

Rivera said he encourages all local residents to notify MNB(E) authorities if they find any lost military property. In some cases, there might be an actual reward offered for its return.
